- 2.1 Overall Objective: Information given under other sector fiches applies.

2.2 Project purpose

The purpose of the General Technical Assistance Facility (GTAF) is to allow project preparation to proceed in a quick and effective manner.

The Programme Reserve will be used to cover additional programme related priorities and expenditures that are currently unforeseeable.

3. Description of project

3.1 Activities:

The GTAF will support the preparation and early implementation of activities under the Annual Programme. Actions to be supported are likely to include: recruitment of short-term technical assistance (local and international) for activities such as feasibility studies, inputs to terms of reference and specifications and tender evaluations.

The Programme Reserve is particularly important for enabling EU assistance to maintain a flexible capacity to respond to Serbian priorities, particularly in responding to Serbia's priorities for SAA negotiations/implementation. The assistance is to be targeted particularly towards areas such as: public administration, rule of law, environment, decentralisation, economic development, education, support to refugees and minorities and developing of institutional capacity to address the preparation of projects for financing under future IPA programmes.

In this regard, full use will be made of exemptions to procurement rules and calls for proposals provided for in the Financial Regulation.
